MONTPELIER

For the first time in many years Montpelier high school will not be represented by a football team this fall. School does not open until later than usual and in addition most of the older boys will not be able to attend until Oct. 1. The enrollment of students will be larger than ever this year and Principal Edwards will be unable to devote any time to athletics the first part of the year, so that it was decided not to have a team. Realizing the conditions that would exist, Principal Edwards cancelled all the games scheduled early in the summer. Members of the district board of appeals left for their respective homes last evening after having declared a recess until next week.

The death of Mrs. Fanny R. wife of John Doherty, occurred at Heaton hospital early yesterday morning after several weeks' illness. The funeral will be held at Trinity church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. L. O. Sherburne officiating. Burial will be in Thompson cemetery. Fanny Wright was born in West Berlin Nov. 18, 1865, the daughter of Samuel and Martha Wright. She was married in 1893 to John Doherty and they have resided in Montpelier since that time. She leaves no immediate relatives besides her husband, who is night watchman at the National Life Insurance company.

Jerome Fitzpatrick, who resigned as a member of Montpelier high school faculty to accept a position at the Vail school, left yesterday afternoon for Lyndon.

ONLY SUBMARINES IN RIGA

Russian Naval Forces Are Ready to Engage Germans. Petrograd, Sept. 8.—No enemy vessels other than submarines have been observed in the Gulf of Riga, the war office announces. Russian naval forces are ready to engage the Germans. There is no material change in the Riga region, the statement says. Encounters occurred between the Russian rear guard and the advance cavalry of the Germans.

Notice.

There will be a meeting of farmers, under the auspices of the Washington County Farm bureau, at the farm of C. W. Persons in South Barre, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 11, at 1:30 p. m., for the purpose of inspecting the corn variety test plot. At this time the several varieties of corn in the field will be weighed and their maturity calculated and an explanation given by the county agent. The matter of the correct silage corn is important and this meeting will be worth your while.

F. H. Abbott,
County Agr. Agent.

Second Session in Barre. George H. Wilder pupil of William Shakespeare of London, will teach in Barre on Wednesdays, beginning Sept. 12, for the season. As the application for the fall exceeds last season, only a few more pupils can be accepted in voice, piano and flute. Address, Wilder School of Music, 116 Main street, Burlington, Vt.—adv.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Hear the September Emerson records at Martin's Book Store. Better than ever. 25c.

John Bottinelli of 101 Smith street was removed to the City hospital yesterday for treatment.

Miss Selina Bianchi left this morning for Boston, where she is making a visit of several days with relatives.

To Rent Sept. 1—Tenement on Camp street; modern improvements. Apply to Mrs. Fritz Jackson, or Morse & Jackson's office.

Old-fashioned molasses-cocoanut haystacks at 23 cents per pound and other home-made confections equally toothsome are among the Saturday specials at the Laws candy shop.

Santa Dorazio, who was locked up on an intoxication charge, appeared before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this forenoon, acknowledged a first offense and paid the minimum fine and costs.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New lot of gingham in Fitts' annex. Louis Carl went to Bethel last night to remain with friends through the week end.

Be thinking about the social and dance at Cobble Hill grange hall early next week—adv.

John P. Corcoran of the postoffice force is passing the week end at Mount Washington in the White mountains.

Charles Creig of South Main street has returned from New Haven, where he has been spending a few days with friends.

Misses Alice Gray, Violet Furey and Minnie Fraser were among the Barre people who left the city this morning for New Haven, Conn., to reside.

Roger Ericson and Ronald Morgan returned this morning from Claremont, N. H., where they have been employed during the summer by the Sullivan Machinery company.

J. E. Rollins, who sustained injuries in a fall on the stairs in the Gordon block a fortnight ago, is at the home of his son on Brooklyn street. Mr. Rollins is slowly regaining his health.

Supt. C. H. White of the city schools, who is passing the summer with Mrs. White and children at their farm in Walden, was a visitor in the city yesterday, returning to Walden last evening.

Friends in Barre of Orville Youngson, formerly of Barre, who has been employed as a cinematograph operator in New York for the past two years, will be interested to learn that he has been drafted and expects to be certified for the national army.

Rev. J. W. Barnett, who tendered his resignation as pastor of the Congregational church last Sunday, arrived in the city last evening from Needham, Mass., where his family is passing the summer. He is to occupy the pulpit of the Congregational church to-morrow.

Stanley Curtis arrived in the city today from the College farms in Lyndonville, and will spend a few days with his uncle, Frank Adams of Elm street. Mr. Curtis leaves the 15th for Mansfield, Mass., where he is to take charge of a large dairy at the Lowmy farm.

George A. Pierce, a East Barre farmer, lays claim to all medals for large cucumbers. Recently Mr. Pierce, who has been doing his "bit" by raising a garden, found among his cucumber vines a cucumber which measured 14 inches in length, while it measured about six inches in width.

John W. Riley, son of Martin Riley of 21 East street, who enlisted in the U. S. navy some time ago, has been transferred from Philadelphia to New London, Conn., to attend the Diesel engine school, according to word received by the family.

Mr. Riley expects to be enrolled in the school for six or eight months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Melcher and son, Paul, of Park street returned yesterday from an automobile trip through New Hampshire and Maine. During their absence, Mr. and Mrs. Melcher visited with friends in several parts of Maine, while the trip was made through the White mountains.

Charles H. Wilkie of Central street, who is taking a brief vacation from his duties in the upholstery department at A. W. Badger & Co.'s store, left today for Barton, where he will visit in his former home for a few days. Upon his return he will be accompanied home by Mrs. Wilkie and children, who have been passing several weeks in Orleans county.

Shouts of "Water! Water!" and "Get the hook!" greeted the operator of the street department sweeper as he guided his roller-broom through Depot square this morning. Travelers hurrying to either station were lost in clouds of dust and while one man was persuading the driver to desist for a time, someone else was calling the fire station for information concerning the whereabouts of a sprinkler. So much pressure was brought to bear on the captain of the sweeper that he steered away from the square until after a sprinkler from the station had gone over the flagging with two coatings of water.

Soft filling pies took a decided slump in Depot square yesterday when a hustling baker's boy, in making a turn in front of Jack's lunch room, swung one of the F. D. Ladd Co.'s delivery trucks over the railroad crossing so precipitately that a whole consignment of baked goods was deposited on the pavement.

Most of the pies were in a tin compartment which slid over the tail board and scattered its contents in every direction. Over on the platform of the M. & W. R. station a little group of wide-eyed knights of the ties looked on avidly while the driver, descending hurriedly from his seat, vainly endeavored to salvage a part of the meringued wreckage.

As most of the pies were of the pumpkin, squash and custard varieties and therefore susceptible to violence of any kind none of the pastry cargo was saved. All on board were intact.

A judgment for the plaintiff to recover $84 was rendered in city court by Judge H. W. Scott yesterday afternoon in the case of Spencer vs. Paquet Bros. The plaintiff, C. J. Spencer, brought suit to recover the sum of $83, alleged to be due him as a result of the defendant's automobile demonstrator and selling agent for the defendants. Witnesses for the defendants were: Russell Allen and A. M. Flanders, who told something about the prices paid for demonstrating, Joseph Pruneau, Wilbur Duquette, William Willette and G. A. Paquet. The only evidence introduced for the plaintiff was brought out when Spencer himself took the stand. After the judgment it was intimated that the defendants would not appeal. J. Ward Carver appeared for Spencer and A. A. Sargent represented the defendants.

The Granite Manufacturers' association has received from Howard Elliott, one of the best known railroad executives in America, a letter commending its members in their decision not to burden the railroads with 15 or 20 carloads of granite for the retailers' exhibition at Philadelphia. In a letter recently received President Elliott says in part: "My attention has been called to your action in refraining from sending an exhibition of the most excellent Vermont granite to a monument convention which was held in Philadelphia. I understand that you took this position because, in this time of national crisis, you feel that unnecessary movement of freight over the American railroads should be given up. This attitude on the part of your association is most encouraging, and as one member of the so called railroad war board, I desire to express my appreciation of the action taken and to congratulate you and your association upon the unselfish spirit shown."
